Miss Tannay, a teacher in the Third Ward school, has applied to resign her position in order to accompany a sick brother to visit home in the east. The vacancy is being filled by Mrs. Ora Hammond.

Edgar Strummond, formerly a Santa Fe brakeman here, is quite ill at his home in Portland, Oregon. His mother, Mrs. Minnie Strummond, is with him.

John M. Grish, a carpenter employed by Vincent Estes, was badly injured yesterday afternoon when a horse which he was driving along North Second street became frightened and swerved from the road. The animal struck a telegraph pole and then crashed into a back wire fence, throwing Grish from the buggy and cutting him badly. The wounded man was carried to the Neal Institute nearby, and later removed to his home at 220 North Walter street.

Mr. George E. Hall of Norwich, Conn., one of the largest woolen manufacturers in the country, is spending a few days in Albuquerque. He talked interestingly of the wool situation when seen at the Alvarado this morning. According to Mr. Hall the uncertainty as to what will be done by the approaching extra session of Congress in the way of tariff tinkering is proving harmful to business in all lines; and until this uncertainty is put at rest there can be no relief from the situation. While the Canadian reciprocity agreement affects only a limited number of industries, the fear that the Democratic house will undertake a more general and radical revision of the tariff will necessarily keep business in an unsettled condition until after Congress adjourns. Mr. Hall is accompanied by his wife and daughter and will be in Albuquerque until Tuesday.

Attest in the reign of cosmopolitan denizens, a class of novices were last evening conducted through the "pleasing" mysteries of initiation into full fellowship with the Odd Fellows. The mimic grand lodge was opened in grandiloquent style by Most Noble Kyo Ty Votaw, who presided in solemn state over the administering of the initiatory rites to the following candidates representing the various nations: Joe Whitesides, Chinaman; W. B. Bunton, Irishman; Louis Tripp, Dutchman; Teddie Wells, Russian; Anton Anson, Swede; Reuben Tanner, Italian.

The grand lodge which conferred the degrees on the candidates was offered as follows: Most Worthy Kyo Tye, J. J. Vonaw; Most Worthy Tye, J. W. Dexter; Noble Scribe, Teddy King; Guardian of the Criterion, of Boiling Spring, Henry P. Smith; The Chosen Three, John D. Hughes, J. H. Shuffelberger, Israel Putnam; Challenging Member, William Bailey.

The merriment waxed fast and furious toward the end of the formal session that was followed by dancing enjoyed by the whole company.

Near the midnight hour an elaborate lunch was served to the guests, who numbered several hundred odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their friends.

All the newest styles in millinery from the east are on display at astonishingly low prices. Come and see. You are sure to find what you want at Coverdale's Commercial club building.
